Terminate Apprentice

Terminate with Released Hours

 Apprentice is removed from roster, hours are applicable to testing and licensing

Terminate with Suspended Hours

- Apprentice remains on roster, hours are
 NOT applicable to testing
- You can release hours if the Apprentice makes good.

80 Hour Rule

- Goal: Get Apprentices Tested ASAP
- Refer when Apprentice has 80 hours to go
- Example: 920 hours out of 1000
- Refer for Testing

Apprentices Must Have All Curriculum Hours Completed and Updated Before They Can Test

- Total Hours have are reported.
- This replaces the Notice of Completion and Certificate of Readiness Forms.
- The Apprentice will have to submit the Application for Practitioner Licensure.
- Body Art Apprentices will have to submit Release Forms and Verification of Infection and Pathogens training.
- Use forms on KBOC site.

Apprentices Must Have All Curriculum Hours Complete Before Testing

- Keep Reporting Apprentice Hours!
- Curriculum Hours Must Be Complete and Updated Before Test Date or the Apprentice will not be allowed to test!
- Remind Apprentices to Submit Practitioner's License Application

Apprentices Must Have All Curriculum Hours Complete Before Testing

- Requires Coordination Between You and the Apprentice
 - Apprentice must schedule their tests far enough ahead
 - -Give them the date they will be complete
 - You must enter all curriculum hours before the test date!

Cosmetology: Refer for Testing

Cosmo Apprentices can be Referred for Testing at 1000 hours

- They can schedule their written test.
- They can take the written test as often as necessary.
- At 80 hours to completion, they can schedule their Practical Test.
- Curriculum hours must be complete and updated!
- Remind them to submit their Practitioner License Application.
